

C.U.P. Jottings

By J. L. G.

Vancouver, B.C.: The Ubysey is publishing a series of photographs this fall with the purpose of "emphasizing the ridiculous working conditions in certain parts of the University." The first of the series published several days ago shows the inadequacy of the laboratory space and instruction in the Department of Chemistry, where two assistants are in charge of approximately four hundred students. The Department has since undergone reorganization.

Toronto, Ont.: The Department of Military Studies has lately been included into the Faculty of Arts at Varsity. Major M. B. Watson, the head of the department, will now represent his department on the Faculty of Arts Council, and courses will form part of the Arts curriculum.

Saskatoon, Sask.: A Swing Club for the appreciation of Swing as played by the masters has recently been organized on the Saskatchewan campus. The new organization will devote its time to jam sessions and discussions of different modes and moods of Swing. "All alligators who really want to get in the groove turn up at the organization meeting. Let's declare war on campus ickies!" says the executive.

London, Ont.: Inquiries of students as to the possibility of securing gowns to wear on the Western Campus has led to the probable purchase of a few by the University very shortly to be rented to the students at a moderate price as a trial. The final decision will be given after a meeting of the Women's Organization to be held in the next few days. If a sufficient number take advantage of this opportunity, more will be bought in the near future.

Winnipeg, Man.: The new course in Interior Decoration recently offered at Manitoba University which is the only one of its kind in the Dominion, gives a diploma standing which together with three more years' study in the United States leads to a degree. The course is included in the School of Architecture and the limited staff is the only reason why the degree course cannot be given. The course includes practical studio work in addition to various fields of architecture and designing and demonstrations on wallpaper, furniture and rugs.

Halifax, N.S.: The Students' Council at Dalhousie U., after a hectic meeting, decided to purchase a Wurlitzer nickelodeon for use at all Glee Club shows, basketball dances, class hops, etc. The machine was the topic of editorial criticism in the Dal. Gazette which argued this while the machine was excellent value for 185 dollars, a more complete poll of student opinion was forthcoming before the purchase was made.

Daily to Sponsor Journalism Talks

Sponsored by the Daily, a series of talks on journalism and allied fields will get under way next week. Addresses by leading authorities will include topics on the role of the newspaper in the modern world, gathering of news, typography, public relations, publicity, advertising, criticism, radio technique, magazine work, etc. The series has been designed to be of interest not only to the staff of the Daily but to students in general, and will be thrown open to the entire undergraduate body.

DOCTOR'S LIFE NOT ROMANTIC

Dr. Simpson Talks to Pre-Medical Society

Stresses Difficulties Confronting Struggling Young Physician

"The grandeur and romance of medicine appear only to those looking in from the outside. A doctor receives more kicks than halfpennies," said Dr. Simpson, Associate Dean of the Faculty of Medicine, addressing the first meeting of the McGill Pre-Medical Society yesterday.

Acting as adviser to the newly-formed club, Dr. Simpson outlined the primary object which such a society should keep in view: "To enable the students to become acquainted and to discuss their common interests with members of the Medical Faculty."

"Although society generally is not getting adequate medical care, there are so many doctors in the large cities that the average income is small," the speaker continued, emphasizing the difficulties to be encountered by the young physician. "Ninety-five per cent. of the students first entering Medicine think they will be great surgeons or research workers. Less than one per cent. actually achieve this ambition."

Attitude of Service.

"The attraction to Medicine should be a desire to serve your fellowman and your community. Only then will you be happy in this profession. "Your pre-medical course is just as much a part of your training as is the actual medical course," the doctor concluded, "and your pre-medical record will be considered before you are accepted in Medicine."

"Although a general knowledge of the three basic sciences, and a more extensive study of any one of them, is necessary, a doctor requires a sound mental training, a critical judgment, which can be obtained from the study of any subject."

Dr. Simpson was thanked by Jack Patrick, newly elected President of the Society. The other officers chosen were: Vice-President, Archie Cameron, and Secretary-Treasurer, Katharine Gordon.

Ballroom Dancing.

The McGill Ballroom class, under the direction of Miss Mary Cuzanne, will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in Strathcona Hall.

DEBATERS HOLD ENGINEERS AID TO CIVILIZATION

Hughes and Randolph Win Weekly Engineering Debate

GERMANY UNCIVILIZED

Value of Engineering Contributions to Mankind Argued

Stressing the fact that the science of engineering and civilization were synonymous, T. Hughes and M. Randolph of fourth year engineering, upholding the affirmative of the resolution, "Resolved that the Science of Engineering Contributes More to Advancement of Civilization than any Other Profession," defeated the third year team of P. D. Tuttle and K. Beecher yesterday afternoon. The debate was one of the weekly contests sponsored by the Engineering Debating Society and was held in the Engineering lecture-theatre. J. J. Stewart acted as chairman. Professor Wallace of the department of Electrical Engineering was senior judge.

The affirmative stated that the standard of living had increased over 700 per cent. since the Industrial Revolution, and that this was entirely due to engineering. It was their belief that engineering progress made the labourer happier at his work and that it was wrong to believe that there was no beauty or poetry in work such as engineering.

Denying that material progress constitutes civilization, the negative pointed to Germany as an example of a country where great progress had been made in engineering and science. However, despite such progress they contended that this country certainly could not be termed civilized.

The next debate will take place on November 30 at 5 p.m. All students, including co-eds, are invited to attend.

ARTSMEN ORATORS ARGUE TWO ISSUES

Debating Society Disputes on Chamberlain's Policy and Fraternities

The Artsmen debaters yesterday afternoon removed the pebbles from their mouths and delivered orations which, even a fastidious judge had to admit, "were of unusually high calibre with prevalent rhetoric."

The first issue, "Resolved that the Chamberlain government is working in the best interests of peace," was successfully upheld by Glyn Owen and Simon Goldberg. The former based his argument upon the compulsion of all British Governments to uphold peace if they are to prevent internal decay in the empire. The latter contended that since "no sacrifices are too great to maintain peace," Chamberlain was correct in giving way before the dictators in the recent crisis, for "Hitler was absolutely determined in war."

The defeated negative side, composed of Lorne Grinstein and Martin Hollinger, vehemently denounced the Chamberlain government as "working only for class interests," and condemned its policy of isolating "Russia, the staunchest supporter of world peace." "Neville Chamberlain's policy is one that will lead to war," they asserted.

In the second verbal conflict, the subject of which was "Resolved that Fraternities are an asset to campus life," Joe Berman and Lloyd Henderson, the affirmative side, were victorious. They pointed out the usually high scholastic standings of Fraters, and, armed with statistics, showed that many successful men were members of fraternities.

Gui Caron and E. Goldman, the vanquished upholders of the negative side, attempted to portray the disadvantages of fraternity life, the isolation caused, and its undemocratic principles.

BADGER WILL PLAY AT NEWMAN DANCE

The second informal dance of the year of the Newman Club will be held this Saturday evening in the Union Ballroom at 9 p.m.

This dance is open to all students and is one of the Saturday night Swing Sessions backed by the Social Activities Committee.

Music will be supplied by Rollie Badger's orchestra. Badger and his band are from the New Sherbrooke Hotel, in Sherbrooke, and are noted for their swing music. Some type of entertainment will be presented during the course of the evening.

Tickets are $1 a couple and are on sale at the Union Tuck Shop.

DEAN CLARKE TO LECTURE

Third Talk on Program of Montreal Orchestra Today

Elgar's Enigma Variations to Be Main Topic

The phonograph and collection of records, which has been presented by the Carnegie Fund to McGill has arrived, and will be used this afternoon by Dean Clarke in the third of his "lecture-concerts." The lecture will take place at the Conservatorium at 5 p.m.

Dean Clarke, who is speaking on Elgar's Enigma Variations, will illustrate the main themes of this composition on the piano. He will also discuss the selection, after which the Variations will be played on the phonograph. The talk will serve as a prelude to the concert of the Montreal Orchestra on Sunday afternoon. The Overture to Mendelssohn's Midsummer Night's Dream and the Bach-Wood Suite No. 6 will also be heard.

As its guest artist Robert Viroval, a talented young violinist, will play the Vieuxtemps Concert No. 4 in D Minor, accompanied by the orchestra.

The lecture was supposed to have taken place Friday. However it has been changed to Thursday instead, because of the meeting in the Union Ballroom on Friday afternoon. So that students may attend both lectures, the music lecture is taking place a day earlier than scheduled.

TRACE MONEY FLIGHT

Transfer of Funds in Times of Panic Described

The flight of money from one country to another will be traced at the meeting of the Political Economy Club which is to be held at 8.30 p.m., tonight, in the Union Ballroom. The subject is to be discussed under the heading of "Hot Money."

The discussion is to be led by D. Campbell and M. Salmonovitz, both of whom are honour students in the Department of Economics.

Not to be confused with marked ransom notes or counterfeit money, the "Hot Money" referred to is the money transferred from one country to another in times of financial stress or war scares. World conditions in general may be traced by charting this flight or transfer of money from country to country as general financial conditions vary.

The meeting held tonight is the second of the current session, the year's activities being

SEVEN CAMPUS CLUBS TO HEAR GRANT FRIDAY

Topic Is 'Fascism Attacks Civilization'

2 LECTURES TOMORROW

Will Go to University of Toronto Next

Mr. Donald Grant, an authority on European History since in World War and an interpreter of post-war creeds, will address a mass meeting of seven campus clubs tomorrow afternoon at 5 p.m. in the Union Ballroom. His topic will be "Fascism Attacks Civilization."

During the course of his address, Mr. Grant will deal with such questions as the policy and program of German Fascism, the expansion of Fascism in Europe, the causes underlying the persecution of religion and minority groups at the present, and the Fascist challenge to civilization.

The following organizations are sponsoring the all-student meeting: The Anglican Club, the Cosmopolitan Club, the International Relations Club, the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, the Maccabean Circle, the Social Problems Club, and the Student Christian Movement. The members of the committee are Betty Kobayashi, chairman, and Ainsworth Scott, Freda Belkin, Ruth White, William Heustin, and Lloyd MacKean.

Speaks Several Times.

Mr. Grant arrives in Montreal today at the invitation of the S.C.M. While in the city he will address the Canadian Institute of International Affairs tonight on "Chamberlain's Policy."

CHAPEL SERVICE ON SUNDAY NIGHT

Reverend Principal Kilpatrick to Officiate; Open House Afterwards

Chapel Service will take place this Sunday night at 7.30 in Divinity Hall, with the Reverend Principal Kilpatrick of the United Theological College speaking and conducting the service. Principal Kilpatrick succeeded Principal Smythe this year at the United Theological College and was formerly at Melrose United Church, Hamilton.

The Sunday Evening Chapel Service, offered by the Student Christian Movement, takes place every other Sunday and is usually conducted by students with a guest speaker.

W. H. German will play records of cosmopolitan music at the Open House following the service, and talk informally on his recent round-the-world trip. German, a student in Engineering, worked his way around the world last year and collected the records on the way.

The purpose of the Open House is to allow those interested in the S.C.M. to meet together and become acquainted with the S.C.M.

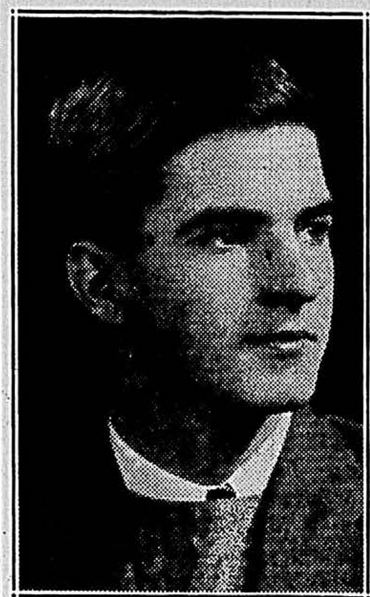

opened by a Mock Parliament. Future plans for meetings include such topics for general discussion as "Deficiency Budgeting" and "Co-operative Technique and Its Application to Canada."

All Agree Play Is Excellent Comedy

CHARACTERS YOUNG

Humor Kept at High Pitch Throughout Production

By P. S. M.

As the date for the production of "French Without Tears," draws near, campus interest in the forthcoming Terrence Rattigan comedy seems to be increasing. At least, a good many people who have neither seen nor read the play have been expressing their opinions of it in loud tones of conviction.

So it appeared to your correspondent that it would be both just and interesting if those most concerned in the McGill production—namely the actors—should also have their say. The resultant interviews took place at irregular intervals during a rehearsal of the Players' Club production.

Barbara Macaulay was the first approached. She plays Diana in "French Without Tears," a part that requires more than average physical beauty and a considerable amount of acting ability. Miss Macaulay seems to be blessed with both attributes. She thinks that the play is excellent and has good evidence to back up her reasoning. "It opened in London two years ago and it's still running," she said, "and a comedy's got to have something to do that." This one seems to have everything.

Hard Work.

Does she like acting in "French Without Tears"? Well, it was awfully hard work at first when she was trying to get her characterization "right," but now it seems to be easier and she's really beginning to enjoy herself.

Ambrose Saunders, who plays the pompous Commander Rogers, was next on the list. Ambrose's comment on the comedy was brief. "Good play," said Ambrose. And what did he think of his part? "Good part," said Ambrose.

David Ashdown, who has the leading role of Alan Howard opposite Barbara Macaulay was standing by, and your correspondent asked for his opinion. "You can judge a comedy fairly well by watching and seeing whether it goes stale on you after a month of rehearsals. 'French Without Tears' hasn't on me," he said. "In fact I'm beginning to enjoy it more and more. It's not too sophisticated and it's definitely adapted to a college cast because all the characters except two are under twenty-five."

Sheer Entertainment.

So we came to Eileen Munroe. She's Jacqueline, daughter of the owner of the institution where budding young diplomats come to learn French. She doesn't think that "French Without Tears" is 'deep.' She calls it sheer entertainment, and believes that it fulfills one of the main functions of the theatre—an escape from reality. The only thing she doesn't like about acting in it is the fact that her part is a 'straight' one. "I'd like to have one or two punch lines" (Continued on Page Four.)

Hoult Will Speak At Commerce Luncheon

Hungry Commerce men will gather today at one in the series of Commerce Luncheons at one o'clock in the Union Grillroom. The guest speaker at this luncheon is to be Mr. Hoult who is a former President of the Chartered Accountants Association of the Province of Quebec and a partner in the firm of P. S. Ross and Sons. Mr. Hoult is to discuss the history and present aspects of the profession of Accountancy and will also point out many of the problems besetting the newly-graduated Commerce man. Tickets are still attainable from Class officers and from any member of the Commerce Executive.

McGILL GLEE CLUB

McGill's 1938 edition of the Glee Club makes its debut for the season this Saturday at Stanstead when it travels down to perform as guest artists of the International Night.

Membership has hit a new high, with over sixty enrolled, of whom forty have been selected to make the trip. Under the leadership of Harry Norris, the club has prepared a programme of choral numbers, solos, and quartettes.

MEDIEVAL THEATRE

Historical Club Discusses Development of Drama

The R.V.C. Historical Club will meet tonight at 8.15 p.m. in the Kappa Kappa Gamma apartment, 768 Sherbrooke St. where two members of the Club, Betty Whitehead and Margaret Graham will speak.

"Backstage in the Medieval Theatre" will be the subject of Betty Whitehead's address. When she has explained the connection between this and the early Greek theatre, she will tell of the theme of the plays, the settings and the gradual development of the theatre from the tenth century up to the Renaissance.

Margaret Graham's topic will be "Medieval Minstrelsy and the Life of the Minstrel." In this address she will also tell of the miracle plays put on by the church, the beginning of Guilds, and how acting finally developed into a profession.

Around the Campus

All you budding young politicians—oops, pardon—statesmen will be nipped in the bud if your nominations for the Students' Council and Searlet Key are not in by 2.30 p.m. . . . There's music in the air at the Conservatorium at 5.30 p.m. today when Dean Clarke gives the third in the series of music lectures. Today's lecture will see the new Carnegie phonograph make its debut and formally launched in local society. . . . Among some few other accomplishments bookkeepers also eat. Those interested in viewing this miraculous spectacle had best drop in at the Commerce Luncheon at one o'clock today in the Union Grillroom. . . . The Players' Club b.o. (box office to you Lifebuoy fans) is open today and hereafter until further notice from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Get your tickets early. . . . Burn your fingers with "Hot Money" at the Political Economy Club meeting in the Union Ballroom at 8.30 p.m. today. If we got a hold of it, it wouldn't burn our fingers very long.

World News in Brief

Forest Fires Sweep Malibu

Santa Monica, Calif., November 23.—Forest fires swept through this fashionable movie resort today destroying palatial homes and sending beach residents down to the surf for safety. Cattle, deer, and wild life, were stampeded out of the woods into the residential districts making passage dangerous.

Fascist Embargo Suggested

Ottawa, November 23.—Severance of trade treaties with Fascist countries is being urged by many authorities here and it is felt that when Parliament opens there will be a demand that the Government take this step. As the concessions in the new trade treaty with the United States will automatically go to the dictator countries as most favoured nations, Canadians feel that this arrangement with the dictatorships should be terminated.

Alaska Proposed As Refuge

Washington, November 23.—Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes suggested that Alaska would be considered as a possible home for German-Jewish refugees. Secretary Ickes made it clear that the proposal was at present being studied and that no definite steps had been taken as yet. Alaska is the only possession of the United States which has not been fully developed, according to Mr. Ickes, and a study would be made to determine how large a population it could support.

Student Directories Prove New Boon To Sadie In Finding Man

By SADIE.

The beautiful belle of the campus has been leading a gay and glorious life the past few days—(and will anyone step forward and deny it?). She's sweet and we all love her. But we have heard very slight murmurs of discontent from Sadie herself.

"Sure, I think it's a swell ideal—but how'll I get to go?" said one freshette, evidently still lost in the big city. "What's the use of the thing if you can't get out of the rut—and suppose the only telephone number that comes easily to mind belongs to that same rut!" remarked another—shall we say—student.

It was the element of change that was missing—the mystery, and so on. But NOW—now's her chance to show that old gambling spirit! We've got Miss Hawkins and the Students' Directory at the same time—and what possibilities there are in the situation—what possibilities!

POLOISTS DROP DOUBLEHEADER

Seniors Bow to M.A.A. 15-6;
Juniors Lose 18-5

The McGill polo teams met double defeat at M.A.A. last night when the Seniors were downed 15-6 while the Juniors bowed before a much superior team 18-5. The Seniors played a fine game for the first three quarters but met disaster in the final frame. McGill went out in front twice in the first period by virtue of goals by Isenman and Bourne, but the quarter ended with McGill trailing 4-3.

M.A.A., shooting into the deep end, increased their lead in the second period and at half time the home team was in front 7-4. Defending the deep end during the next frame, M.A.A. were able to hold this lead with each team marking up three counters. The Redmen tired out, however, in the final stretch and the victors ran up six more goals, the score ending
M.A.A. 15, McGill 6.

Isenman and Bourne each figured for two goals for the Red team while Shragovitch and Leonards counted for the remainder.
Young starred for the M.A.A. A squad with five goals while Winsor, Castell and Woods also figured prominently.

Juniors Lose.

The Juniors were downed by a much more experienced squad. M.
A.A. forged into an early lead and were out in front 7-4 at the end of the first quarter, which they immediately followed up by seven more goals in the second period.
McGill were able to hold them in the third period but four more goals in the final frame added to the insurmountable lead.

Knox starred for M.A.A., accounting for a third of his team's points, while Demers also played well for the home team. Cameron and Barza were the outstanding

McGill Absorbs 9-3 Loss In Senior Group Fixture

Craig Scores Two—
McConnell, Kennedy,
Dunn Star

By HORACE GRAVES.

Montreal Royals turned both barrels on the Senior Redmen
last night at the Forum to ram home nine goals behind the bewildered Ash Emerson and chalk up a 9-3 victory in a Quebec
Senior Hockey League game.
The match was the first of the regular Wednesday evening doubleheader, and was featured with wide-open hockey that kept the fans in an uproar
throughout the entire struggle.

Led by their imported line of Dewey, Acheson, and Gamble the Royals lived up to their pre-season recommendation as they scored three in their first period, two in the second, and finished off with four in the final canto. McGill's markers came in the first and third sessions. Sharing the spotlight for the Royals was the ever brilliant Buddy O'Connor who scored twice and assisted in three others.
The Dewey, Acheson, Gamble line accounted for three goals, and were the most effective Royal line on the ice.

Craig Scores Two.

For McGill Ian Craig once more came into the limelight as he scored twice and assisted McConnell for the third McGill

Russ McConnell

marker, McConnell assisted Craig in both his counters, and was the outstanding player of the evening
while Kennedy and Dunn played standout games.
Coach Farquharson has three forward lines working with the Mc-Connell, Craig, Walker trio a standout. Ronny Perowne made his season debut at centre between Bruce Crutchfield and Kennedy.
These two lines bore the brunt of the work as the third line of Hibbard, Owen and O'Brien saw little action. Anton, Dickson, and Dunn looked after the defensive duties.
Anton was participating in his first

CALAMITY

By Card

It turned out to be what writers like to call a rout—but that is by no means the way it started. At the very start the Red team looked really good. It was evident from the outset, however, that there was going to be quite a bit of scoring.
Two goals in the first two and a half minutes is fast work no matter
how you look at it.

Playing football is great publicity—especially when you're good at it. Andy Anton, in his first game on skates this season
proved as popular with hockey fans as with followers of football. Many of the spectators kept shouting for Andy to "hit 'im." He did, turning a great body-checking display on the defence. Football was also ably represented in the person of Ronnie Perowne, who centred
the second line, and Bill Davies of the Nationals, who is now a member of the Carlin Clan.

Ian Craig has gathered five points
for himself in the two games McGill has played. The stocky winger has become a very definite scoring threat on the first line, which is as good as any around the circuit. Russ McConnell, who centres this line, worked at a terrific pace, but seemed to be disfavoured by Lady Luck.

Timmy Dunn, recovered from his charley-horse, saved what looked like certain goals in the second and third period. He just managed to poke the puck
out of the way when Emerson was drawn out of the net, and later outskated O'Connor when the latter had broken away. Tim-my's leg suffered a slight relapse, but he returned late in the game to bolster the defence.

The game drew spectators—several thousand of them—but very few McGill supporters. Only one Red-and-White ribbon was noticed fluttering bravely in the rather dismal atmosphere. The Band was absent because the Band only plays at home games, but the ghost of its mascot was there in the person of the fox terrier which is an interested spectator at all hockey games.

The Royals have found their scoring punch. They back-

Porteous Tallies Twenty

to Save Game

By C. A. B.

Lachine, Que., November 23.
—A Horatio Alger finish saved
the day for McGill's Intermediate hockeyists and assured them
of at least one point as they tied Villaray 3-3 at the Lachine Arena in their opening game here tonight. In the see-saw struggle Joe Porteous proved the nemesis
of Villaray when he slapped
a goal into the nets exactly twenty seconds before the finish to knot the count with one of Villaray's men watching shame-facedly from the cooler.

Bad passing and failing to make use of Villaray's shorthandedness prevented Coach Charlie Letour-neau's Redmen from taking the contest handily. Villaray, however, counted twice to send them ahead
in the last period when a Redman was cooling off in the clinks.

Penalties Even.

Penalties were handed out evenly. A minor fracas occurred in the third period after a McGill goal when Palmer and Wilson came to blows. The two were both banished. Porteous was the bad man for the Redmen, taking two penalties, but more than atoned for his behaviour by his tying goal.

After a scoreless first stanza Dan Doherty garnered the first tally on a neat play with Macdonald and

SWORDPLAY

By Doug and Jack

We promised last Thursday to honour the celebration of Sadie Hawkins Week by giving you gentlemen the low-down on the ladies of the local fencing world, who are as adept at the thrust and parry as they are at looking lovely, though athletic, on the gym floor. Since fencing is a game of skill and counting, you might expect the girls to excell and you are not mistaken.
Their natural deceitfulness and predilection to change their minds make it difficult to decide what move is coming next. We suspect, gentlemen—this is distinctly between you and us—that if some of the ladies were endowed with a man's strength they would beat us easily. As a matter of fact, there are some young ladies around who have given us some bad moments and against whom we have had to exert ourselves to the utmost to maintain masculine prestige.

We've often wondered why the Co-eds at McGill have never been interested in this game, which really must be more exciting than archery
and better exercise than ping-pong, and which is reputed to do wonderful things to a girl's form and poise.
Don't quote us on that. We feel it

COOKE SEEKS U.S. CROWN

McGill Runner Enters Race
at Newark

Seeking new fields to conquer, Lloyd Cooke will carry the Red and White colours of McGill across the border to compete in the 42nd
annual United States senior cross country run championship of the U.S. Amateur Athletic Union at Branch Park in Newark, N.J., on November 27th. Cooke has had a banner season at McGill and paced his teammates to recent victories
in the Intercollegiate Harrier race
and the Dunlop Cross Country Run.
He will face the stiffest opposition in America this Sunday as this event draws top notch runners.

December 9 when the McGill
teams compete against Westmount
Y.M.C.A. It will be a hard-fought contest because Coach Finlay has a lot of good material to choose from and the "Y" Leader's Corps can contribute a few specialists to the Westmount teams. (I think Juniors and Seniors will both compete on the same date).

Hay Finlay seems pretty well pleased with the way the veterans are polishing up their exercises (you should see Art do his giants, you really should), and with the way the less experienced men are catching on to new swings, circles, rests, dismounts, etc. Those interested in getting on a team should work out a combination for each piece of apparatus. Also concentrate on improving your form—point your toes and keep your legs straight. A very high percentage of the total points is for good style.
A simple combination, neatly done, pleases the judges more than a difficult one done sloppily.

Last week's item of interest: Our friend, Dunn Lantier, that estimable equestrian, was seen limping
around the campus nursing a swollen toe. It turns out that Dunn stubbed it on the side-horse at last Wednesday's practice. What a gymnast!

JUNIORS MEET VERDUN

Oppose League-Leaders in Regular Hockey Game Friday
McGill's Junior Hockeyists are anxiously awaiting their second start Friday night at the Forum
when they engage the league-leading Verdun Maple Leafs. The Redmen lost their opener against Concordia by the score of 6-4, but showed great power in the closing stages of the game. They are anxious to vindicate themselves so a real battle can be expected when they skate out against the Leafs on Friday night.

for myself" she said, "It's not so much fun just being a stooge."

Carlo Bos and Jim Stevenson, the hearty Brian and the ungainly Kit, respectively, were found in a corner talking to each other. Carlo thinks the play is "superficial, but a lot of fun to act," and the worthy James opined that snap and teamwork were the main essentials for a successful production.

So your correspondent stayed and watched the second act being rehearsed. The lines were spoken with clarity and precision, the tempo was never lowered. It seems to be of a comedy of both lines and situation, and it's really and honestly very funny—at least what your correspondent saw of it was. The word that seems to describe it best is "brisk." You'll never be bored watching this one, when it's staged, and unless your sense of humour is sadly amiss, you'll be considerably amused.

inadvisable to go too far with suggestions of this sort. We made that mistake once and as a result spend long hours on Saturday afternoons throughout the season teaching twelve specimens of femininity how to arrange their anatomies so as to give an aesthetic representation of the lunge. If there's a harder coaching job anywhere, we don't believe it. Of course, there are compensations (with reference to fencing) in that once the initial stages are over the girls learn much more quickly, and fence more gracefully, than the awkward male. Incidentally, there are fifty girls out at Macdonald College who are looking for a coach who will teach for the pleasure of it. Might be rather fun, boys! Transportation would be paid. Somehow it seems a pity that such a body of prospects should be without instruction. There have been rumours which we hesitate to deny or confirm regarding the formation of a fencing group by the McGill girls. Evidently much interest has been shown. The problem is, of course, whether money will be forthcoming from the Women's Union with which to secure professional coaching. It might be a good idea to tie up with the boys' fencing. Fencing is, after all, a social game. We've noticed that the most active clubs around Montreal and the ones that win the championships are those with members of both sexes. Ask Freud why that is!

It is rather difficult to estimate the number of lady fencers around Montreal, because, although there are already four organized clubs, we know of many salons d'escrime, dance academies, and schools, etc., where the girls are taught to lunge prettily in time to music. Perhaps this should not be called fencing. It is a shame that these people don't go in for competitive sport and enter the various Novice, Provincial and Dominion Tournaments sponsored by the Provincial Association.

The four ladies' clubs are Montreal Fencing Club, Sun Life Club, Westmount Y and Y.W.H.A. These four are entered in an inter-club city league. Westmount Y girls are the present champions. Occasionally some very interesting fencing is seen at these matches and sometimes funny things happen.

We had intended to mention some of the interesting personalities in ladies' fencing but on reflection we decided that it would be useless to hurl unfamiliar names and exploits in the teeth of our readers. We hope that you fellows who stick with fencing will get to know some of the other fencing people in the city. This column will publish the dates of important tournaments and we suggest that you drop around some time and have a look at the brand of fencing displayed by some of the other swordsmen and ladies around the city.

Tournaments will be held on Friday to decide upon the members of the second and third teams. All fencers or past fencers should get out and make the team.

REVUE REHEARSAL CALLED TONIGHT

Executive Wants Skits, Music, and Chorus Candidates

"Although there was a very good turn-out last Tuesday, I am confident that there are many more comedians who would like to be in the Red and White Revue chorus," said Producer Hingston last night. The next rehearsal will take place today at 5 o'clock in the Union Ballroom.

"The Revue chorus," Hingston stated, "which has always been the backbone of the show," is an ideal activity in which a co-ed can take part, for apart from the fun chorines always have, it affords them free dancing instruction under the competent and debonnaire Alan Murray, and plenty of good, healthful, grace-giving exercise."

This year the seventeenth edition of the Red and White Revue is taking place on the 9th, 10th, and 11th of March. In order to insure the highest possible quality of performance, preparation must begin early, especially for the chorus. There will be rehearsals every Tuesday and Thursday from now until Christmas and from after the mid-term exams until the Show. Girls who want to be in the chorus but were not present last Tuesday must be in the ballroom of the Union at five o'clock today when Pianist Ralph Whitehead gives forth the strains of the proverbial "Tea For Two" for their benefit.

The executive would also like to see anyone who is interested in singing and acting, or who has anything to contribute in the way of music, skits, etc. The most convenient time is after four o'clock on Tuesdays and Thursdays in the Revue Office.

checked powerfully, and missed few chances when in close. Something which McGill sadly lacked. The Redmen showed gratifying potentialities and with a few more games under their belts should be a real threat. Not that they are weak at present. The score, as the saying goes, is hardly indicative of the game.

Incidentally, what goes on in the McGill dressing room is a dark secret. No reporters allowed, before, during or after the game. Such lack of hospitality—but then there must be reasons.

Mat Talk

Local groups. With this experience under their belts, the boys ought to put up a pretty good showing during the Assault at Arms in February.

New faces have been appearing steadily at the workouts, bearing out our point that wrestling is at last being taken for its full worth at McGill. Even if you do not intend to take it up in a competitive way, wrestling is hard to beat as a general body conditioner. Workouts are held Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, at 5:00 p.m. in the High School Gym.

Porteous. Midway through the period Danny's glasses were shattered and he was out for the rest of the canto. Loftus of Villaray tied the game in the first minute of the last stanza and Young came right back to place McGill ahead. Wilson and Palmer were soon followed to the jag by Chalmers and with a one-man advantage Villaray shot two quick goals between the pipes to forge ahead 3-2. In the last minute Hurwitz was sent off, and in a race with the final bell Porteous notched his tying goal.

Soper Shines in Nets.

Warren Soper in the nets turned in a sparkling exhibition. For the first two periods he had plenty of anxious moments but managed to keep his mesh clear.

If the handicap of lack of practices and equipment can be overcome the Intermediate should prove quite a threat for the title. The defence left nothing to be desired but the forwards' passing can be improved. The game, believe-it-or-not, was a home game for the Redmen. The Lachine Arena will be their stamping grounds this year.

Lachine inhabitants are ardent hockey fans. Overheard after the Vics-Concordia tilt which Concordia took 1-0: "Who are we going to root for in the next game?"

The line-ups:

McGill: Villaray Soper.....goal.....Edwards Palmer.....defence.....Landreville O'Flaherty.....defence.....Wilson Macdonald.....centre.....Loftus Porteous.....r. wing.....Hurwitz, M. Doheny.....l. wing.....Burr McGill: Chalmers, Burrows, Toung, Harvie, Holliday, Hebert. Villaray: Shore, Michaud, Proulx, Willock, Macdonald, Hurwitz, G., Ouimet.

FIRST PERIOD.

No score. Penalties: Porteous, Shore.

SECOND PERIOD.

1—McGill.....Doheny (Macdonald, Porteous) ... 5.35 Penalty: Porteous.

THIRD PERIOD.

2—Villaray.....Loftus 1.00
3—McGill.....Young (Burrows, Hebert, Palmer) 8.30

7 CAMPUS CLUBS TO HEAR GRANT

lain and Hitler," tomorrow morning and afternoon he will visit four high schools of the city, speak in the Union Ballroom at 5 p.m., and at Douglas Hall at 6 p.m. On Saturday, he will speak at a luncheon of the S.C.M., and again in Strathcona Hall at 8:15 on "Warring Religious Conceptions Underlying World Events." Then he will leave for Toronto, where he will address students at the University of Toronto.

To allow students who would otherwise have gone to Dean Clarke's lecture-concert on Friday afternoon to attend this meeting with Mr. Grant, the Dean has advanced the music talk to today.

A graduate of the University of Edinburgh, Mr. Grant has spent the majority of the post-war years in Europe, especially in Austria, the Balkans, and Russia. He lived for a year and a half in Geneva, where he attended several sessions of the League of Nations Assemblies, including the World Disarmament Conference.

Organized I.S.S.

After the War, Mr. Grant organized the European Student Relief, which later developed into the International Student Service. After spending four years in New Zealand as a secretary of the S.C.M., he has been travelling in Europe. In 1936 and 1937 he visited the United States where he addressed students in the University of Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, and Missouri. At present, he is on another lecture tour in the U.S.A. where he has been speaking on the following subjects: "Post-war Europe," "Europe Fears War," "Will Japan Dominate Asia and the Pacific Basin?", "Soviet Russia," "The British Empire in 1938," and "Post-war Vienna." He has a great amount of information of the last topic in particular, since he was residing in Vienna in the early twenties, when the short-lived Socialist government was in power, and tells of its creative community, new housing, new schools, its new type of life, and how its freedom was finally taken away by Nazi Germany.

ROYALS ROUT REDMEN, 9-3

game of the season and turned in a credible performance, spilling Royals this way and that, much to the delight of the crowd, garnering an assist and also three penalties for his troubles.

The Redmen jumped into a short-lived lead at the 1.31 mark of the first period when McConnell and Craig combined on the prettiest play of the evening. McConnell set up the play, giving Craig a clear path into the Royal citadel and Ian chalked up his third goal of the season.

Royals Even Score.

Royals bounced right back when Dewey scored on passes from Acheson and Gamble after the three of them had played checkers with the puck inside the McGill blue line. O'Connor put the Royals in the lead as he took Munday's pass, rounded the McGill defence and beat Emerson when close in. McConnell came right back from the faceoff and nearly scored. At the 7.30 mark Morin rang up number three for the Royals when he scored on a passing play with Heffernan and O'Connor.

On a breakaway Craig scored his second counter of the evening with assists going to McConnell and Anton. The latter lifted Dewey about ten feet a few minutes later as the crowd roared. McGill were boxed within their blue lines and were forced to ice the puck several times. Gamble drew a penalty for tripping Dickison and the Redmen turned on the power but to no avail as they missed chance after chance.

Second Period.

Soon after the second period started Dickison got the gate for tripping and the Royals went on the attack. Dunn saved a sure goal as he fell across the line while Emerson reclined flat on his back away from the cage. Anton dropped Jotkus and on his next rush the latter was again dropped by Anton and Dunn. Dewey and Acheson staged a pretty passing bout to count number four for the Royals at the 7.13 mark, and while Anton was off with his first penalty Acheson scored number five.

McGill turned on the power and the Royals iced the puck while the crowd booted. Anton and Davies staged a bouncing bout, and on the next play Heffernan was waved off for upsetting Kennedy near the McGill net. When the Royal right-winger protested he received a ten-minute misconduct penalty for his efforts. Jadke was penalized for tripping and the crowd was in an uproar as the Redmen missed chance after chance to tie up the score.

The third period was featured with wide-open hockey as McGill attempted to get back in the game. Five goals were scored with Royals garnering four. Anton drew two enforced rests.

The Line-ups.

The line-ups were as follows: McGill: Goal, Emerson; defence, Dunn, Dickison, Anton, Brands; forwards, McConnell, Walker, Craig, Crutchfield, Perowne, Kennedy, Owen, Hibbard, O'Brien. Royals: Goal, Seguin; defence, Davies, Jadke, Murray, Munday; forwards, Acheson, Dewey, Gamble, Morin, O'Connor, Crutchfield, Heffernan, Allen, Jotkus.

The Summary.

First Period.
1—McGill, Craig (McConnell) 1.31
2—Royals, Dewey (Acheson, Gamble) 2.22
3—Royals, O'Connor (S. Munday) 6.19
4—Royals, Morin (Heffernan, O'Connor) 7.30
5—McGill, Craig (McConnell, Anton) ... 9.55 Penalty: Gamble.

Second Period.

6—Royals, Dewey (Acheson) 7.13
7—Royals, Acheson (Gamble, O'Connor) ... 10.47 Penalties: Dickison, Anton, Heffernan (misconduct), Jadke. Third Period.
8—Royals, Acheson (Munday, Gamble) 2.22
9—McGill, McConnell (Craig and Walker) ... 3.50
10—Royals, O'Connor (Morin) 12.55
11—Royals, Heffernan (S. Munday) 13.45
12—Royals, Jotkus (O'Connor) 19.40 Penalties: Gamble, Anton (2).
